Sri Lanka: Demigods or Destroyers

The current wave of protests in Sri Lanka is a result of people's rage prompted by their suffering due to economic hardships. Suppressive actions would inevitably be counter productive as Sri Lanka is now in a state of emergency and chaos, thanks to power-hungry heads of the Government who are determined to remainin power even by sheds. of the Government who are determined to remainin power even by shed-ding the blood of the innocent, and with the law enforcement authorities and defense forces having forgotten that they serve the people and not a Government. After widespread violence in Sri Lanka, when pro-govern-ment forces allegedly attacked peaceful protestors in Colombo and proment hores allegedly attacked peacetal protestors in Colombo and pro-testers retailated by setting politicants houses on fire, the government —particularly the Raipanksas — are facing flash for tying to violently sup-ness protests instead of responding to people's demands, this contin-ues, Sri Lank will not be able to even imagine what will become of paid-ine security, the relof of law, democracy, and the freedom of expression, and therefore, the people's demands for better invigo conditions and a section of the control tasks paids can be control of the control of the control of the control of the tasks paids can be control of the control and networks, the people's contained for Petter works (contained and a lack makes on worker whether those violed incidents were part of a sinister plan to perpetuate political instability in the country and sculing the engine first for researchate the economy. Suffice it to say here that the rise of its extremist protege, the Taliban, to power in Afghanistan has created rippling effects for which Pakistan might be ill prepared. In a way, then an observation made by Hillary Clinton year. igo, on the potentially harmful consequences of "breeding snakes in ine's backyard" is likely to prove true, especially as the Pakistani bene factors and the beneficiary Taliban will only grow further apart in the days to come. After all, with the nation-state of Afohanistan, its gover nance structures and administrative institutions firmly under its control the Taliban will start feeling the pinch of having to deliver on its (contro

Zero tolerance In his speech our Chief Minister very strongly ad-vocated for zero tolerance

gainst crimes by the State police on the historic day of presentation of the President's Colour award to the Assam Police at the Nehru Stadium, Guwahati. It was none other than Union Home Minister Amit Shah who graced the occasion as the chief guest. Zero tolerance against crimes was the need of the hour which we, the law-abiding citi-zens, felt for decades was zens, felt for decades was not properly addressed by the then Governments at Dispur due to certain compulsions to be in power. Naturally the zero tolerance of State police has increased the number of encounters with the dreaded criminals which, in turn, has brought down the crime graph drastically. The compulsive oppositions will no doubt have to the need of the number of State. It is clear as daylight that few former Ministers of the then Governments under UPA were in hand in glove with some drug peddlers and poachers Hat's off to Assam Police!
